God speaks and the future is certain.

Exodus chapter 3 verse 12 “And God said, “I will be with you. And this will be the sign to you that it is I who have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will worship God on this mountain.”

The Lord had made this appointment with Moses, a future event decreed. Yet before then there would be self-doubt, opposition, fear, death, destruction, battle and other issues to be faced. In the midst of all these traumatic events, the thought of the divine appointment must have dimmed. But God had spoken and it came to pass.

Matthew chapter 8 verse 18 “When Jesus saw the crowd around him, he gave orders to cross to the other side of the lake”.

The Lord gave the directive with a destination firmly stated, there was no doubt as to the divine intention. Yet there would be desperation, anxiety and the fear of death before safety was assured.

Acts chapter 1 verse 11 “Men of Galilee,” they said, “why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven.”

The church has waited for two thousand years and it has both caused and witnessed the good, the bad, and the ugly. Lives have been laid down, heresies confronted, revivals documented, the Gospel preached around the world with the great crowd from ‘every nation, tribe, people and language’ that will be gathered around the throne; growing by the day.

Along with that we too are facing all the same issues of heart and mind that confronted Moses and the disciples in their boat. We cry out for His return as the wickedness of man and the demonic can be discerned all around.

Yet we perceive worse is to come as the consequences of man's rebellion is in process of being joined by the judgements of God and scripture is fulfilled. But the Lord has promised a glorious return, it has been decreed. The future we have in Him will be revealed and all that we have faced will fade away.

1 Thessalonians chapter 4 verses 16-18 “For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so, we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage one another with these words”.
